What is this type of insurance?

This is an Income Protection insurance designed to help protect a proportion of your monthly income if you cannot work for certain specific reasons.

What is insured?

- ✓ The policy provides cover if you cannot work due to an accident, illness, or involuntary unemployment (which includes giving up work to care for a relative) or a period of hospitalisation.
- ✓ You will have chosen to buy accident and sickness & unemployment cover, accident and sickness cover only, or unemployment cover only.
- ✓ The cover option you chose when you took out your insurance will be shown on your Policy Schedule.
- ✓ If you are a contract worker and you are made unemployed due to circumstances beyond your control, you will be insured if you were in permanent employment but were transferred to a fixed term contract by your employer with no break in your employment, or if you have been continuously employed on a fixed term contract for a minimum of 24 consecutive months which has been renewed by the same employer at least once for a contract of the same duration, or continuously employed on a fixed term contract for a minimum of 12 consecutive months which has been renewed by the same employer at least twice for a contract of the same duration. If your contract and work record was any type other than as described above, you will only be insured if you are made unemployed during the term of your contract (not if it is not renewed).
- ✓ The maximum monthly benefit allowable under the policy is £2,000 or 65% of your normal income, whichever is the lower. The amount of your monthly benefit will be shown on your Policy Schedule.

What is not insured?

We will not pay any claim:

- ✗ If your accident or sickness or hospitalisation results from a medical condition for which you have received advice, treatment, medication or a consultation, or which you were made aware of, experienced symptoms of, or should reasonably have known about, or had seen or arranged to see a doctor about, in the 12 month period immediately prior to the start date of your insurance. This exclusion will not apply if you remain symptom free and have not received any medical advice or treatment for or in connection with the condition for a continuous period of 12 months.
- ✗ For a back condition unless there is x-ray evidence of medical abnormality.
- ✗ For any condition caused or aggravated by any psychiatric illness or any mental, nervous or stress related disorder unless you are receiving care from a psychiatric specialist or nurse.
- ✗ For deliberate self-inflicted injury, for accident or sickness or hospitalisation which is alcohol or drug related, or elective treatment.
- ✗ For unemployment, or the need for you to become a carer, which you were aware of at the start date of your insurance.
- ✗ Which results from voluntary redundancy, permanent retirement or resignation, or for unemployment due to your misconduct.
- ✗ For any period for which you have received a payment instead of working a notice period.
- ✗ If your work is seasonal or temporary and unemployment is a normal or regular occurrence in your work.

- ✓ One monthly benefit will be paid after the expiry of the waiting period and excess period (as stated on your Policy Schedule). You must be unemployed and/or unable to work for the duration of the waiting period applicable to your claim in order to receive your first monthly benefit payment. Thereafter, we will pay 1/30th of your monthly benefit for each further day you are unable to work.
- ✓ The policy provides up to 12 monthly benefit payments for any one claim.
